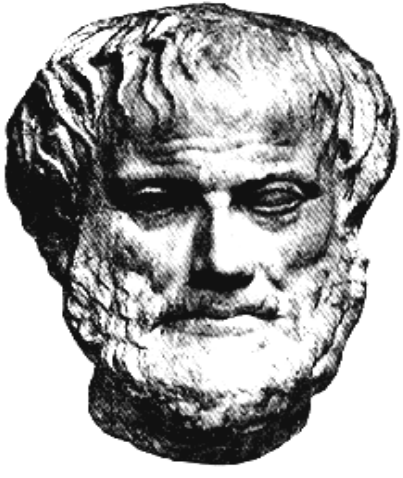
Philosophy = reasoning about the ultimate questions of life.



How does philosophy differ from theology, literature, history, psychology, etc.?

Moral philosophy = reasoning about the ultimate questions of morality.

Metaethics is about the nature and methodology of ethics.

Normative ethics defends general or specific moral principles (normative ethical theory vs. applied ethics).
Class rule:
Understand
before you criticize!